Statement on Modern Slavery

alimex strongly condemns all forms of modern slavery, human trafficking, and exploitation. Our commitment to human rights and ethical business conduct is unwavering. We firmly believe that modern slavery in any form is unacceptable and that it is our duty to combat it. In our business operations, we are actively committed to ensuring that our supply chains and business partners adhere to the highest standards of labour rights and human dignity. We have established a supplier code of conduct to ensure that no form of forced labour, child labour, or exploitation occurs in our supply chain. We support international initiatives and organisations that work to eliminate modern slavery and protect labour rights. Our commitment to eliminating modern slavery is unwavering and we will continue to take action to ensure our business practices are consistent with our values and the highest ethical standards. Together, we can help create a world where the dignity and freedom of every individual is respected and protected.
